

*SASKATCHEWAN
PROVINCIAL COURT JUDICIAL COUNCIL*

The Saskatchewan Provincial Court Judicial Council, acting under The Provincial Court Act, 1998, makes recommendations to the Minister of Justice on appointments to the Provincial Court.

Lawyers who have been members in good standing of a Canadian Bar, for at least 10 years or who have other legal or judicial experience that is satisfactory to the Council, are invited to apply. The application form and information about the application process can be found under the Provincial Court tab on the www.sasklawcourts.ca website.

In 2014 the Provincial Court will have three vacancies – one in Saskatoon and one in Meadow Lake on April 1st, and one in Estevan on May 1st.

Lawyers wishing to be considered for these appointments, and who have not submitted an application in the last three years, should submit their applications before the 1st day of January 2014, to:

Marlene Rodie, Executive Officer
Provincial Court Judicial Council
2425 Victoria Avenue
Regina, SK, S4P 4W6

The current members of Council are Chief Justice Richards, Chief Justice Popescul, Chief Judge Snell, Judge Singer, Judge Harradence, Heather Laing, Q.C., Ron Thorstad and Ken Waschuk.

If you have any questions, contact Marlene Rodie at (306) 787-5409 or mrodie@sasklawcourts.ca.