DEFENDANT CHECKLIST - 7 STEPS - MOTOR VEHICLE COLLISION CLAIMS

THE SIMPLIFIED TRIAL PROJECT APPLIES

This Checklist, the forms and samples attached, are designed to help you prepare your case. Before going to trial, you must attend a Case Management Conference where settlement and trial readiness will be discussed. To ensure good preparation, disclosure and fairness, you must prepare a Document List and Trial Statement to serve on the Defendant and file with the Court. Note references to the Saskatoon Small Claims Practice Guide which may be obtained at the office and on the website above noted.

STEP 1 – SERVED WITH A SUMMONS AND STATEMENT OF CLAIM

- The Summons contains the date for first appearance and case management.
- Read all documents carefully. Note the requirements in the Court Order and the deadlines for sending your documents to the Plaintiff and filing them with the Court.

STEP 2 - DOCUMENT LIST - Form F2 & Sample S3.3, attached

- Put all relevant documents that you intend to use or the other party may seek to use in the claim, in order, by date, if possible. If not dated, use the date created, e.g. "Diagram made June 10, 2011", "Photo(s) dated June 15, 2011".
- Number the documents in order by placing a number in pencil in the top right hand corner of each document, circling the number. If there are several photos; use a number for the group of photos and a letter for each photo, e.g. 10(a), 10(b), etc.
- With the attached Document List form, list the documents in numerical order, using the numbers you put on the documents. Provide the date and a brief description of the document. Attach the documents, in numerical order to the Document List.

See III B. 7) of the Saskatoon Small Claims Practice Guide for further details.

STEP 3 - TRIAL STATEMENT - Form F3 & Sample S3.3, attached

- The Trial Statement will become the basis of your evidence at the trial.
- Typed or printed in point form, it should not be over 750 words (3 pages) long. Refer to witnesses by name and documents by number where they fit in with the statement.
- You will be asked to adopt your Trial Statement at the trial so be careful to be accurate and include information which is important to your defence. You may amend it or be permitted to provide additional information at trial, on request.

See III B. 8) of the Saskatoon Small Claims Practice Guide for further details.

STEP 4 – DISPUTING THE CLAIM

- Type or print a Statement of Defence. Form F5 & Sample S6.1.
- You must type or print a Document List. See STEP 2 above.
- You must type or print a Trial Statement. See STEP 3 above.

See V of the Saskatoon Small Claims Practice Guide for further details.

STEP 5 - SERVICE ON PLAINTIFF(S)

- Send the following documents to the Plaintiff(s):
 - a) Statement of Defence
 - b) Trial Statement
 - c) Document List.
- Service must be completed at least 10 clear days before the date on the Summons or the first upcoming court date. 20 clear days service is recommended to allow sufficient response time. (Clear days do not include the day on which the document is served or the court date.) Advise the Office immediately if you are unable to serve in time.
- You may send the documents by mail or other means to the Plaintiff's address, found in the Summons. An Affidavit of Service may be needed if the Plaintiff indicates not receiving the documents. Form F7.7 attached.

See IV of the Saskatoon Small Claims Practice Guide for further details.

STEP 6 – FIRST APPEARANCE AND CASE MANAGEMENT DATE

- Attend Court on the date specified in the Summons. Bring your diary to set a trial date. If you do not appear the Plaintiff may apply for judgment against you.
- Bring all of your printed materials concerning the claim to this first appearance.

- Be prepared to discuss the witnesses and evidence that you plan to produce at trial.
- If you live over 100 km from the City you may ask the Court about appearing by phone.

STEP 7 - TRIAL

- As soon as you receive a trial date, confirm with your witnesses that they are available.
- Consider serving your witnesses with subpoenas. The Court provides the subpoena upon request. The Judge may decide that a witness will not be necessary.
- Begin trial preparation early. Make sure that all relevant documents have been disclosed and are included in your Document List.
- On the day of the trial, make sure that your witnesses attend at the beginning of the trial unless you have made other arrangements with the Court.

See VII & XIV B. Simplified Trial Project of the Saskatoon Small Claims Practice Guide for further details.

ADJOURNMENTS

- If you need an adjournment, seek the other party's agreement and contact the Court Office immediately.

See X of the Saskatoon Small Claims Practice Guide for further details.

NOTE ABOUT COMPLIANCE

This Checklist contains information about your obligations. Failure to comply with requirements within the time frames specified may result in postponement of proceedings, costs, disallowance of pleadings, documents or evidence, and potential dismissal of your action.

Pay close attention to the Court Order to File.
