

COURT OF KING'S BENCH FOR SASKATCHEWAN

CIVIL PRACTICE DIRECTIVE #2

BANKRUPTCY AND INSOLVENCY

REFERENCE: CIV-PD #2

Former reference: Practice Directive #16 issued September 1, 2003

Effective: July 1, 2013

Revised: November 1, 2023

1. There will be a panel of judges dedicated to dealing with matters of bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, RSC 1985, c C-36.
2. To bring a petition or application before one of the judges on the panel, a party shall contact the local registrar to obtain a return date for the application. The local registrar will fix a date after consultation with the member of the panel selected by the Chief Justice.
3. If a petition or application is not initially brought before a member of the panel, a respondent may have the matter transferred to a member of the panel by filing a request for transfer with the local registrar within 24 hours of receiving notice of the petition or application. The request for transfer shall be served on all other parties to the proceeding before it is filed with the local registrar. Upon receiving the request for transfer, the local registrar will fix a date after consultation with the member of the panel selected by the Chief Justice.
