- (a) stay the execution of the judgment appealed from;
- (b) stay proceedings in the action; or
- (c) invalidate any intermediate act or proceeding taken pursuant to the judgment.

(2) An application to stay the execution of all or part of a judgment or to stay proceedings pending an appeal may be made to:

(5) Unless otherwise ordered, a judgment creditor may provide the sheriff with a certified copy of an order staying enforcement measures under a money judgment and thereafter may register that judgment pursuant to The Enforcement of Money Judgments Act and sections 171 and 173 of The Land Titles Act, 2000, but the judgment creditor shall not provide the sheriff with enforcement instructions until the stay has expired or been lifted.

- (a) identify the part of the judgment sought to be varied;
- (b) specify the grounds for variation; and
- (c) state precisely the relief sought.

(3) The omission to serve a notice of cross-appeal does not necessarily preclude a party from seeking a variation of the judgment appealed from, as contemplated by Rule 58(c) (Powers of the court), but the omission may be grounds for an adjournment of the hearing of the appeal or for a special order as to costs.

PART 7

Intervention

Intervention

17(1) Any person interested in any proceeding before the court may, by leave of the court, intervene in the proceeding on the terms and conditions the court may direct.

(b) in the case of an appeal when no transcript of evidence is required, within 10 days after the date on which the last respondent was served with the notice of appeal

(3) Within 10 days after the receipt of the draft agreement, each respondent shall return the draft agreement to the appellant, signed in approval, or, if not approved, accompanied by a memorandum of objections to it.

(4) The parties shall make every reasonable effort to exclude irrelevant material from the appeal book, avoid duplication and otherwise confine the contents to that which is necessary for the purposes of the appeal.

(5) If, within 30 days after the date the last respondent received the draft agreement, the parties do not agree on the contents of the appeal book or the date on which it is to be completed, the appellant shall apply to a judge to have the matter in dispute settled.
