SCHEDULE I-B
General

In the Court of King's Bench

What this Schedule is about: This is the Schedule that is referred to in Part 11, Rule 11-18(1). Part 11 generally refers to how the Court may make an order or direction with respect to the costs in a proceeding, and this Schedule outlines the basic cost structure between the parties to the litigation.

Whether this Schedule is used in any given case, either in whole or in part, is subject to the discretion of the Court. If an item is not referred to in this Schedule, the matter of costs for that item will be in the discretion of the Court.

The Schedule is divided into 3 columns; Column 1 is to apply in every case unless the Court directs otherwise.

The appropriate column is based on the complexity of the matter. Column 1 represents the least complex matter and Column 3 represents the most complex matter.

The parties may agree on the column to be applied, failing which this must be decided by the Court.

Some judicial processes have their own Tariff of Costs and, in matters falling within those processes, this Tariff will not apply.

Family Law Division

What this Schedule is about: This is the Schedule that is referred to in Part 11, Rule 11-18(1). Part 11 generally refers to how the Court may make an order or direction with respect to the costs in a proceeding, and this Schedule outlines the basic cost structure between the parties to the litigation.

Whether this Schedule is used in any given case, either in whole or in part, is subject to the discretion of the Court. If an item is not referred to in this Schedule, the matter of costs for that item will be in the discretion of the Court.

The costs allowed for all types of applications including originating applications, include the preparation and attendance on the Application, and all affidavits, briefs and any other material filed in support or in response, except where otherwise specified or allowed in the discretion of the Court.

The Schedule is divided into 3 columns; Column 1 is to apply in every case unless the Court directs otherwise.

The appropriate column is based on the complexity of the matter. Column 1 represents the least complex matter and Column 3 represents the most complex matter.

The parties may agree on the column to be applied, failing which this must be decided by the Court.

Some judicial processes have their own Tariff of Costs and, in matters falling within those processes, this Tariff will not apply.

SCHEDULE I-C
In the Court of King's Bench
Probate and Administration of Estates Matters

1 For the purposes of this Schedule, the value of the estate is the total of all assets of the estate being administered. Property not handled by the personal representative, such as joint property, insurance, annuities and pensions not payable to the estate, is not included in the value of the estate and the lawyer shall charge separately for services respecting that property.

2 For all necessary core services rendered, the fee allowed to the lawyer is:

- (a) $1,500 plus 1% of the first $500,000 of the value of the estate;
- (b) 3/4% on the next $500,000 of the value of the estate; and
- (c) 1/2% on the remaining value of the estate.

3 For non-core services or other services rendered for the estate and for the passing of accounts, the additional fee allowed to the lawyer is the fee provided for in subrule 16-58(3).

Amended. Gaz. 5 Apr. 2024.
