

CRIMINAL PRACTICE DIRECTIVE NO. 10
CITATION OF AUTHORITIES

Effective January 1, 2026

1 The citations included in all factums, written arguments, memoranda of law and other written submissions filed with the Court must comply with The Canadian Open Access Legal Citation Guide (COAL) / Guide canadien de la référence juridique en accès libre (RJAL).

2 The guide is freely available online at 2024 CanLIIDocs 830.

Note: This Practice Directive is issued by the Court under the authority of The Court of Appeal Act, 2000 and Rule 74 of The Court of Appeal Rules. It replaces Criminal Practice Directive No. 7, which became effective October 1, 2014.

Explanatory Note: COAL promotes clarity and consistency in legal citation and provides detailed guidance on citing case law, legislation, secondary sources, government publications, and international and foreign materials. It will be updated periodically.
